

Short interviews with the ALDE delegates

1. What was your first impression of MEP?

Max M.: First, I was nervous about my common position paper, but now it is fun, the discussions are like private meetings.

Jemima K.: It was a bit confusing and I was very nervous.

Nikita M.: I was not really nervous because it is already the third time I participate at MEP. It is all very interesting.

2. Is it the first time you are participating at MEP?

Max M.: Yes, it is the first time.

Jemima K.: No, it is the second time.

Nikita M.: No, it is the first time.

3. Are your expectations you had before fulfilled?

Max M.: First I felt like I can't handle to speak formal English all the time, but it is easier right now. There are still two more days, so let's see what will happen.

Jemima K.: Yes, it is fun here!

Nikita M.: Yes, I wanted to find new friends, improve my English and learn something about politics.

4. Where do you come from?

Max M.: I come from Hanover.

Jemima K.: I come from Bochum. There are also some Belgian foreigners who go to an international school.

Nikita M.: I come from Essen.

5. Is MEP hard for you concerning the topics and the language?

Max M.: No, it is actually no problem for me.

Jemima K.: No, it is easy to manage and it is fun.

Nikita M.: No, there are no greater problems, I like it here.

6. Are you satisfied with your room, your meal and the partners you work with?

Max M.: Yes, the meal is delicious and we work goodly together.

Jemima K.: Yes, in the whole I am satisfied.

Nikita M.: Yes, everything is fine here.
